LA FOLLETTE MAY BRING BIGELOW CASE TO SENATE

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, may take up the whipping of Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow, of Cincinnati, in the Senate and demand a Congressional inquiry.

Bigelow is the pacifist who was set upon by a party of masked men for speeches he made. Senator La Follette has made public a letter he has written him expressing his indignation and sympathy.

In it he declares the attack was on the liberty of every citizen and said that if the Department of Justice officials did not act "other means would be found to unmask and punish those who made the attack."

It is considered here doubtful whether Congress will act, holding that it is a matter of State action.

SAYS MEXICO NOW SEES U. S. AS FRIEND

"Mexico today is not pro-German, but more and more the Mexicans are coming to feel that they have a friend and not an enemy in the United States."

This is the opinion of Charles A. Douglas, legal representative of the Carranza government in Washington, expressed in his address to the Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Banking at the first winter meeting last night.

Roy L. Neuhouser, president of the Washington chapter, presided at the meeting. Richard W. Hinton talked briefly on the educational program of the institute. Milton Harrison, of the National City Bank of New York and secretary of the savings section of the American Institute of Banking, spoke.

GERMAN CLAIMS ARE CALLED NONSENSE

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Telegraphing from British headquarters in Flanders, Perry Robinson says of Paschenkaede:

"We hold the position we won from the highest point of the ridge to a point above Paschenkaede, and now overlook that village and a wide, unspoiled country, with green fields and plowed lands in the plains beyond."

"The German communiques makes the extraordinary statement that the village of Paschenkaede was at one time 'lost,' but was subsequently recovered by gallant counter attack. This is pure nonsense, the only foundation for it being that after the battle had won the farthest point set for them to win."

HURLEY WILL AID OIL NEEDS OF BRITISH

Chairman Edward N. Hurley, of the shipping board, left for New York today to confer with members of the British war mission and with petroleum producers concerning the question of shipment of oil supplies for the British navy.

British demands for oil will make it imperative for this government to divert a certain amount of tonnage for that purpose.

U. S. THANKED FOR AID BY ITALIAN PREMIER

ROME, Nov. 2.—Premier Orlando has called President Wilson Italy's appreciation of America's sympathy in her hour of trial.

The text of the message was not made public.

ROYAL GRAVE ROBBER.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 2.—A dispatch from the Hungarian capital says the grave of Grand Duchess Alexandra Pavlovna of Russia in Budapest has been robbed. The body was stripped of its jewelry.
